Teresa Burke held its annual Veterans Day memorial event on campus.

Local veterans attended the event Friday morning. Several arrived early and had a chance to visit with fellow veterans.

Prior to the ceremony, student council members greeted the veterans in the reception room. Names, ranks and experiences were shared, with a warm comradery.

The ceremony began when Principal Monique Goodwill welcomed everyone and introduced Wasco Middle School's band, which played the national anthem. The Pledge of Allegiance was then led by Zaiden Vaughn and introductory remarks were made by Savannah Sharp.

"Without their service, we would not have the freedoms we have today," Goodwill told the attendees. She then read a proclamation to the attendees stating that no man is left behind – including the families of those who've served.

Guest speaker Victor Castillo said, "The military demands respect. Be sure to thank veterans you meet along the way for their

Brides can 'yes' to these dresses

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

There is a small shop in town that caters to every girl's fantasy of buying a fancy dress for a prom, wedding or quinceañera.

Sandra's Wedding Shop, at 651 D Street, is where girls can begin their search for that special dress. The shop also carries books with examples of additional dresses that can be ordered.

The shop carries wedding, bridesmaid, flower girl, mother-of-the-bride and quinceañera dresses, as well as tuxedos and decorations of all types.

Upon entering the store, shoppers will see a mannequin with a bouffant hand-embroidered dress. Walking through the store is like looking inside a kaleidoscope; every color imaginable is available.

Even though the store utilizes the "Mary" brand of dresses, there are a number of catalogs customers can choose from.

Flor Casillas has owned Sandra's since she purchased the shop from her friend Sandra Vargas in 2006.

When asked what the most-popular dress style is, Casillas replied, "The girls want something new and different. There are new styles to choose from every six months." According to Casillas, no one wants to wear last year's styles.

In addition, once the customer has purchased the dress, Casillas offers alterations.

Full-length evening and bridal dresses are sold in the shop.

Another wedding dress used to advertise the store.

Quinceañera dress prices range from $299 up to $1,000, while wedding dresses go as high as $1,200.

"I love when people are happy with everything they get here," Casillas said. "Cus-

Sandra's Wedding Shop is open Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturdays, 11-2. The shop can be reached by calling 661-758-8250.

Kern County Sheriff's deputies from the Wasco substation are asking for the public's assistance in locating a suspect in a recent stabbing.

Since the incident on Oct. 21, deputies working at the substation have been looking for Juan-Manuel Diaz.

Diaz allegedly stabbed a female victim several times.

Maria Diaz and Antonio Diaz from Wasco were already arrested in this incident.

Juan-Manuel Diaz is described as a 21-24-year-old Hispanic male with brown eyes and black hair at 5-feet-5 and weighing 125 pounds.

"This was not a random stabbing," Sergeant Peter Martinez said. "The three are related."

If anyone has information on Juan-Manuel Diaz' whereabouts, they are asked to contact the Kern County Sheriff's Office at 661-861-3110 or the Secret Witness Hotline at 661-322-4040.

PET OF THE WEEK

Alice is looking for a new home

The Wasco Animal Shelter has a German shepherd/husky mix puppy with a medium-length coat. Alice came in as a stray. She is approximately 9 months old and was scanned for a microchip and nothing was found.

Alice is great with people, but can be a bit timid toward dogs (because of lack of socializing with other dogs) but she is not aggressive. We will monitor her behavior and socialize her with other dogs. She became available for adoption on Oct. 22. Please come by the shelter and give her a visit! If you have any questions, make sure to give us a call at 661-758-7240. Stop by and visit us at 5409 7th St. or give us a call. Her ID is AC19-ALICE.

Behavior analysis office opens in Wasco

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

Another new business opened in Wasco celebrated with a ribbon cutting ceremony recently.

Behavioral Momentum Services opened its second facility on Nov. 2.

Behavioral Momentum provides Applied Behavior Analysis services to children diagnosed on the Autism spectrum and other developmental disorders. ABA is evidence-based therapy that can help children with disabilities achieve better outcomes, such as improved language, social skills and decreases challenging behaviors.

Owners of the facility are Clinical Director Abby Dhillon and Executive Director Marina Tackitt.

Tackitt and Dhillon have worked together for 15 years and decided to go into business for themselves by opening a facility in Bakersfield. They did that in early 2019.

Their second facility is the first onsite ABA office and center in Wasco.

The center provides opportunities for teaching those with disabilities to function in the mainstream world and hopefully become gainfully employed in the workforce.

Clients are nurtured and guided by a staff of about 25, who all care for the clients at the centers in Bakersfield and now Wasco. "Our staff does all the hard work," Dhillon said.

"We are in the process of purchasing another building," Dhillon added. "I don't want to mention the location, because we are still in negotiations."

Both women are excited about having a working facility available to Wasco residents. Stephanie Valdivia and Johnny Maldonado stopped by the event to check it out.

"I have a 6 year-old son who is nonverbal," said attendee Josefina Gallardo. She was with Juan Jose Vazquez, and both liked what they saw and heard.

Janitor Sean Desmond at the Bakersfield facility confessed he was actually quite shy and quiet and didn't like talking to people he didn't know.

The center accepts insurance payments. They do not receive government funding.

The center does collaborate with other like centers in the Central Valley.

"We work with the clients at home, school or within the community," Dhillon added. "We provide behavior consultation services to adults living in group homes and adults with disabilities living with foster families."

"We also take all ages," Dhillon stated.

The Wasco center is located at 120 Annin Ave. and can be reached at 661-299-0546. "If anyone is interested in taking a walkthrough the Wasco facility, I am available. They can call me at 661-229-0546," Tackitt said.

Woman's Club shares with coalition

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Woman's Club was the focus on November's Community Coalition meeting agenda.

President Marlene Swan gave an update on the upcoming events being hosted by the Woman's Club, such as the Nov. 12 auction have accomplished, such as starting public libraries throughout the state and nation, installing mission bells along the El Camino Real, raising over $1 million in a 1943 "Buy a Bomber Campaign," contributing to the passage of a driver training bill for high school students, collecting over 2,700 used cell phones for distribution to abused women and children, donating over 1.3 million in books and educational materials to public school libraries as a commitment to the President's Summit for America Future and starting the white line down the center of roads to divide traffic - ultimately saving thousands of lives.

Most of the attendees were surprised about the white lines.

The club is currently anticipating over 50 special education students at its Christmas party. The Woman's Club provides a Christmas gift for each student and serves lunch for students and their families.

The club members thanked the city for its support.

Other attendees made reports as follows:

■ Sergeant Peter Martinez reported that the Kern County Sheriff's Office is working hard to solve local crimes and reminded everyone in the group about the camera registry program. "Using this program will help solve crime," Martinez said.

Deputy Patrick Basquez let everyone know that the upcoming Sheriff's Athletic League golf tournament will be at the Bakersfield Country Club on Tuesday, Nov.19.

He mentioned that the local SAL has about 180 members and stated that anyone in need of help with yard cleanup can email him at basquezp@kernsheriff.org or call him at 661-342-7235.

■ Jennifer Fendrick announced that Karl Clemens' upcoming parent university will be Thursday, Nov. 14, from 6 to 8 p.m. She also reported that transitional kindergarten numbers are low this year and urged everyone to spread the word about the district's TK program.

■ Next to address the group was Claudia Saldana from the prison. Saldana reported that the prison donated $800 to the Woman's Club to go toward the upcoming Christmas party and the seniors' Thanksgiving lunch. They also help by providing Thanksgiving food baskets.

■ Janet Grundt announced that the Salvation Army needs bell ringers for the holiday season. She can be contacted at jh-ging@msn.com.

■ Candy Wilson of Toys for Tigers reported that their upcoming Christmas Tree Spectacular will be Dec. 5 from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. She mentioned that anyone interested in decorating a tree for the event can contact her at wpaacoach@hotmail.com.

The Downtown Business Association also brought up the holidays, as Camilo Vasquez announced that the upcoming Christmas parade will be Monday, Dec. 2 at 6 p.m. He stated that entry forms can be requested by contacting the DBA on Facebook. He also stated that they are planning a Christmas village block party after the parade for organizations collecting donations for the holiday season. Lastly, the DBA is in need of ornaments to decorate the community Christmas tree.

Jannette Tapia reported from TJ Cox's office, stating that the congressman's office will be participating in the Nov. 20th senior lunch and a presentation on Medicare enrollment, Social Security and veterans issues will be given.

The next meeting will be hosted by the California Health Collaborative at 810 8th St. at 7 a.m. on Wednesday, Dec.4.

AJ comes back as a Reserve

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

Reserve player Alex "AJ" Clayton will be returning to the team for the 2020 season. The 24-year-old is from Johnstown, Colo., graduating from Roosevelt High.

AJ is a utility player, which means he is versatile and moves around the field. "I'd play multiple positions in one game," he said. "It's challenging and makes baseball fun."

AJ attended Ottawa University in Kansas. He said that earning the starting shortstop job his senior year was really special, but the highlight of his college career was hitting a three-run home run 460 feet on Senior Day.

Some of his other career highlights include pitching nine innings throughout the year and playing in the All Star game. "I played to have fun, the way the game should be played," he added.

Alex (AJ) Clayton as signed with the Reserve for the 2020 season.

AJ played for the Reserve during the 2019 season and looks forward to returning to Wasco.

"I am thankful for [coach] Bill Moore inviting me back for a second year," AJ said. "He gave me an opportunity to break into pro ball last year and I am humbled to be able to come back and continue my career. Wasco is a great place with its weather and fans. The fans are very special."

service." He shared his story of joining the Army when he was younger.

"Anyone who cares about our freedom should join the military," Castillo said.

The band played several selections of military tune.

Next, student Teagan Perkins spoke about how important it is to remember veterans and to thank them. Another student, Jasmine Martinez, read a Veterans Day poem. Goodwill then asked for a moment of silence for those veterans who gave the ultimate sacrifice.

Fourth-grade teacher Erica Arriaga read the names of the veterans to the attendees.

Among those in attendance were Marine Gunnery Sergeant Tyler Perkins, Marine 1st Lieutenant Christina Perkins, Army Specialist Marlene Monarrez, Army Specialist Kyle Spang, Marine Sergeant Ramon Arriaga, Army E-5 Robert Martinez, Army Corporal Juan Pablo Dela Torre, Army E-3 Monique Goodwill, Army Specialist Rodolfo Castillo, Army Sergeant 1st Class James Medrano, Army Sergeant Amanda Castellon, Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Raymond Rodriguez, Army Sergeant Berny Lopez, Army Sgt. E-5 Rafael Macias and Army Bernardo Palacio.

The ceremony concluded after students and attendees sang along to Lee Greenwood's "God Bless the USA."

Minter Museum in vet parade

The Minter Field Air Museum had the honor to participate in 100th year of a tradition that saw a huge crowd gathered for the Bakersfield Veterans Day Parade. The event, which took place in downtown Bakersfield, drew a lot of fans from around the county, as well as revelers paying their respects to the men and women who have served, or are still serving, the country.

Minter Field was represented by the yellow Follow Me Jeep, driven by the MFAM chairman of the board, WWII veteran Everett Williams. He was a B29 side gunner and engineer stationed in Guam. He flew 27 missions over Tokyo.

The museum also had a 1940 staff car driven by David Anderson. The passenger in the vehicle was Ronald Holdsworth, WWII veteran of the Royal Air Force. Holdsworth was a tailgunner on a Handley Page Halifax bomber. He flew over 32 missions in France.

Shafter's first fire truck also was in the parade. Driver Scott Hogstad, a MFAM member, followed the procession through downtown Bakersfield.

Another jeep was on display, with Arnold Martinez driving the antique vehicle with passenger WWII veteran Elmer "Frenchie" De-freese, USMC. He joined the Marines at age 16 and served in the Pacific Theater.

There was also a special Minter Field Air Museum sign on wheels that was made by a Boy Scout last year as his Eagle Scout project.

The museum also will be represented at the Kern County Raceway Park and several other events coming up.

The Tigers headed to East this past Friday for the round 1 matchup with the #7-ranked East Bakersfield Blades.

The Tigers were the first to receive and got completely locked down, so it was the Blades' turn with the ball, and they drove down the field and were the first to score.

The Tigers answered right back to tie the game with a 44-yard touchdown run from Christian Alvarez. The score was 7-7 early in the second quarter.

The Blades answered right back as they drove down the field and through to the corner of the end zone to take the lead. They missed the extra point, making the score 13-7.

Right before the half, East was driving down the field again. In the red zone, the quarterback dropped back to pass, threw and got picked off by Andre Cordova. That took the game into the second half.

The start of the second half, the Blades were to receive, but the Tigers came out and kicked outside and recovered the football. That set the tone for a very aggressive second half.

Both teams fought back and forth with the ball, but neither would strike. That was until 3:40 was left in the game, when Jacob Villeneuve threw a 40-yard reception to Sean Sharp. The Andre Cordova with the carry.

Tigers made the extra point and led 14-13 deep in the 4th.

Then it was East's last chance with the ball, and the quarterback scrambled for a few first downs, but it was too little, too late as the Tigers won to move on to the quarterfinals.

The player of the game goes to Sean Sharp for his clutch touchdown for the Tigers.

This week the Tigers are on the road to take on #2-ranked Selma. The game begins at 7 pm.

Rodrick Scott makes a run against the Blades in the playoffs.

Cemeteries win award

The Kern County Cemetery District, which includes both the Shafter and Wasco Cemeteries, were awarded the California Special Districts Association Transparency Certification at the California Association of Public Cemeteries at a meeting last month.

This program was created by the Special District Leadership Foundation in an effort to promote transparency in the operations and governance of special districts to the public and to provide special districts with an opportunity to showcase their efforts in transparency.

This certificate is recognized for two years; it emphasizes basic state and local transparency requirements.

The Kern County Cemetery District continues to be part of an elite group by reaching the Platinum Level of accreditation. Of the approximately 2,300 special districts.

In order to receive the award, a special district must demonstrate the completion of essential governance transparency requirements, including conducting ethics training for all board members, properly conducting an open meeting, and filing financial transactions and compensation reports in a timely manner.

The district also fulfilled 22 website requirements, including providing readily available information to the public, such as board agendas, past minutes, the current district budget and the most recent financial audit.

COUCH'S CORNER

Grimmway a good neighbor

SUPERVISOR DAVID COUCH

This week's Couch's Corner will focus on another thing to be positive about in District 4.

While others focus on the negative, it has been a delight to focus on the many positive things going on in Kern County.

Today, let's talk about Grimmway's 50th Anniversary and the Farm-to-Fork Tour and Celebration our office got to be a part of earlier this month at their operation in Arvin.

I guarantee you, you've never seen this many carrots! The plant tour shows how farming, automation and industrialization go hand in hand. The carrots process through several conveyor lines to be washed, peeled, sized and packaged for sale. Their systems are so efficient that their total waste product is less than 1 percent of input.

A large portion of their business now is organics, so the use of insecticides, pesticides and herbicides is virtually eliminated. And it's not just carrots. They grow over 65 seasonal and year-round organic vegetables. Now try to imagine this: 405,000 acres of carrots are processed and sold by Grimmway annually. No matter how you peel it, that's a lot of carrots!

And when you consider growers like Grimmway have the responsibility to feed 8 billion people on this planet, it makes sense that these agricultural processes become automated and industrialized. Let's you think automation has eliminated jobs, more than 7,000 workers depend on Grimmway Farms, making them one of the largest private employers in Kern County. We're sitting in the breadbasket of the world, and we're witnesses to environmentally friendly organic processes that make it possible to sustain unimaginable populations. Thank you, Grimmway.

Lunch was homegrown, and of course, for dessert, we had carrot cake. Afterward, the Grimm family and several key personnel spoke of Grimmway's history and allegiance to the land and the Kern County community that they call home. I am so thankful that I can call these people that are so important to our community my neighbors and friends.

I also consider the folks who work in the fields and at the processing plant my friends, too. I regularly meet and work with the Central Valley Farmworkers Foundation, the United Farmworkers Foundation and anybody else that wants to make Kern County a better place.

Grimmway's corporate policy, to take care of their employees and the community, is compatible with the farmworkers who call Kern County their home.

We are all in this salad bowl together, and I think it's important to emphasize that it's through cooperation and understanding that the farmworker and the farmer, the foreman and the lineman, the seller and the buyer, the grower and the consumer can all succeed.

As your county supervisor, that's the climate I want to help create.

Got any questions? Feel free to call our office at 661-868-3680 or email us at district4@kerncounty.com. Have a great week!

David Couch is 4th District county supervisor, covering the Shafter-Wasco area.
